

ALL OVER OKLAHOMA and Neighboring States

Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 31.—Beginning with Thursday, November 2, the three last days of next week will fair in the business three days in this city this fall. These three days will be from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day and last until Saturday night. The Northwestern Oklahoma Education association made a special meeting at the Northwestern Teachers' College. The Woods County Big club stages its annual picnic on this day. The third event of the week will be the annual meeting of the members of the Twentieth Century Club which will be held at the city hall.

DURANT, Oct. 31.—Two thousand teachers of southeastern Oklahoma will gather here for the second annual division of the Missouri Education Association which holds its annual meeting here Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Durant is the host city and the entire work of teachers at this meeting, which is an event always looked forward to with pleasure by the teachers and the citizens of Durant.

EDDIE, Oct. 31.—Radio operators of the state forming a radio organization to be known as the Radio Radio Club, it was announced at the End Radio Divisional meeting. The officers of the organization include Eustace, Weston, Kenneth Price, Norman Wright, Edward Wood, and Kenneth Griffin.

BRIXTON, Oct. 31.—J. N. Winger and Mrs. Lawson were both seriously injured when their automobile, en route to an embankment six miles east of Bristow. The car turned over, pinning both men beneath it. Winger was unconscious, though not seriously hurt, and Mr. Lawson escaped with a few bruises. Winger was taken to the Bristow hospital, while his wife was sent to a station. They are dentists employed by the Walter Phillips company near Bristow.

CHEROKEE, Oct. 31.—A movement is on foot by the chamber of commerce towards the establishment of a glass, bottling plant and brick kiln. There is natural gas available and the almost unlimited supply of first rate brick clay suited for the latter.

WAGONER, Oct. 31.—A proposal made by Rev. T. F. Dawson, formerly pastor of the Methodist church, South, here, concerning the Kingley school, looking towards the establishment of a Methodist hospital here, has met with approval of the church members, business men and a committee consisting of E. L. Kirby, E. F. Case, Reverend Dawson, Dr. G. C. Dill, Dr. J. W. Pilkett, M. A. Martin and Mayor Reed was appointed to make necessary plans for meeting the requirements.

JAY, Oct. 31.—The county superintendent's office has been filled with teachers who have passed the state teachers examination for county certificates. Thirteen are here writing for certificates. Many of them have temporary certificates which expired with this examination.

PONCA CITY, Oct. 31.—Active reorganization of W. C. T. U. locals everywhere throughout the United States is in progress at the present time. To right now, changes in the Volstead act, according to Mrs. Alice M. David of Ponca City, state organizer, who completed a local W. C. T. U. chapter, Dr. John H. Tarler president, Mrs. Edna Ruby vice-president, Mrs. Olive Constant and Mrs. G. C. Bush treasurer.

ATMORE, Oct. 31.—Sixty-five men and farmers of Carter county have organized a farm bureau for the purpose of operating in a manner which will aid all commercial interests. Carl Russell, president, Tom J. Pollock vice president, Carl Russell secretary, H. H. Simmons assistant, and John Griffin treasurer. These officers, with H. S. Scott and W. F. Warren, constitute the governing board.

HEINRICHY, Oct. 31.—The Eagle-Picher Lead company with the Black Petroleum corporation is installing a 150,000 gallon oil tank and a gasoline field booster station for the recovery of the surplus gas from the wells in 24-25-26 sections, forming a large pipeline leading into the eastern storage tanks. The contract for construction is with Engineers, Inc. of Tulsa, and the pipe is being laid by the Tulsa Pipe Company, known as the Eagle-Picher Heinrichy back yard oil pool, the company is bringing in timber for two additional rigs.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 31.—Suggested increases in the salaries of employees of the state government, recommended by the German, under the plan of distribution worked out by those in charge of state training institutions, according to word reaching the department headquarters of the American Legion League.

OKMULGEE, Oct. 31.—The state of Oklahoma is to receive 2 per cent of all royalties from oil companies operating in the Germania, under the plan of distribution worked out by those in charge of state training institutions, according to word reaching the department headquarters of the American Legion League.

NORMAN, Oct. 31.—High school editors of Oklahoma will meet at the fall association which will convene here November 11, it has been announced by H. H. Herbert of Norman, secretary-treasurer of the association.

BRISTOW, Oct. 31.—The man found dead in a rooming house Sunday morning has not yet been identified. He is about 28 years old, about 5 feet and 8 inches high, weighs 155 pounds, brown hair and gray eyes. He wore good clothes, looks like a day laborer. The body is being held at the Grimes Undertaking parlor.

Kansas

ENID, Okla., Oct. 31.—Work on the Kansas Gas & Electric Co.'s power plant will carry 50,000 units of electricity from Cheyenne to the state. The line started. The line will run through Buffville and it is rumored that Buffville will generate the electricity by hydroelectric as soon as the line is completed.

EMMONS, Okla., Oct. 31.—Nearly thirty thousand sheep are being fed near here for the Kansas City market. The sheep are fed on grain and hay by the Empire company and the Emporia Elevator company.

NEODERHA, Okla., Oct. 31.—This city today paid homage to the strayedness of the cow set Saturday when a carded and sealed envelope containing $100 bounties were displayed at Legion park. Farmers from far and near took part in the ceremony. The bounties consist of fine grade cows, which have been sold to dairymen of the vicinity.

COPPERVILLE, Kas., Oct. 31.—A three-hour funeral service for John Baldwin, deceased, native Cherokee Indian and son of the late Dr. W. C. Baldwin, was held in the (Old) Baptist church six miles south of here on Sunday afternoon by Rev. W. M. Thomas, pastor of Hickory Creek church. Rev. A. E. Tucker of Lenape and Rev. W. H. Waggoner, of Okla., performed the ceremony. Waggoner, the Cherokee burial ritual, which had been planned, was not performed due to the fact that the services were held with the ceremony. Baldwin had been an herb doctor, Baptist Missionary teacher and a farmer. He was born in Missouri on March 1, 1880, coming to the Indian territory when he was three days old with his parents and the Indians who had just emigrated to the Cherokee nation.

COPPERVILLE, Kas., Oct. 31.—Ten colored women, each claiming to be the wife of the late Dr. William E. Sudett, whose remains were each swathed one-half interest in a $100 life insurance policy taken out on the death of Sudett a few months before his death. Fabrics and documents presented arrived at the district courtroom at Independence last Saturday.

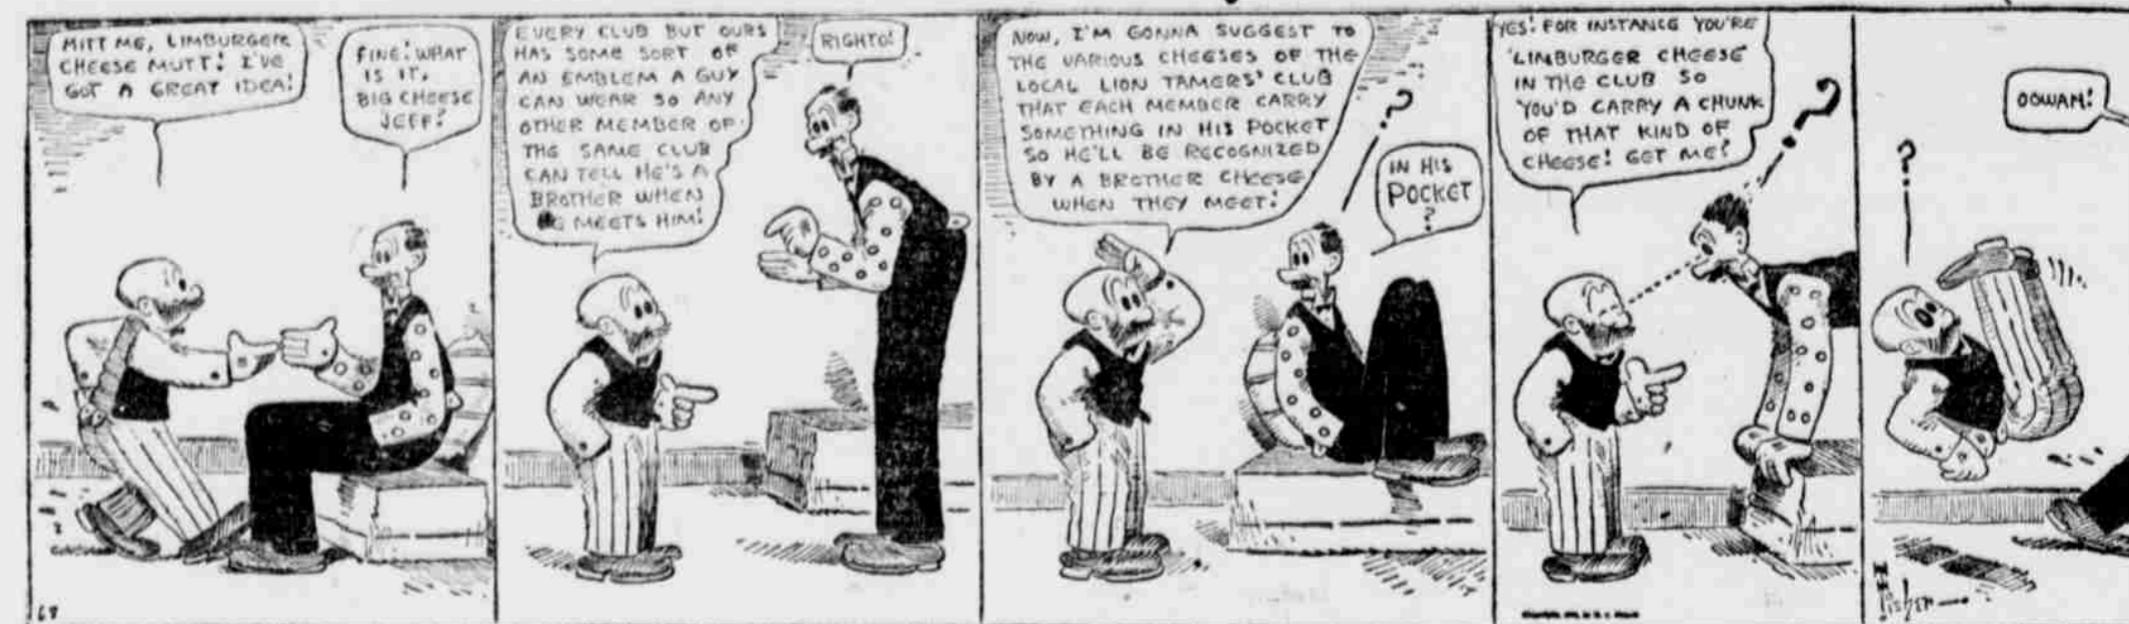

Kansas

FORT SMITH, Ark., Oct. 31.—John M. Andrews, president of the chamber of commerce, Friday tendered his resignation, effective at once. Mr. Andrews has been

Laughs That Make You Live Longer

BY BUD FISHER

MUTT AND JEFF—“Big Cheese” Jeff Springs a Strong Idea.

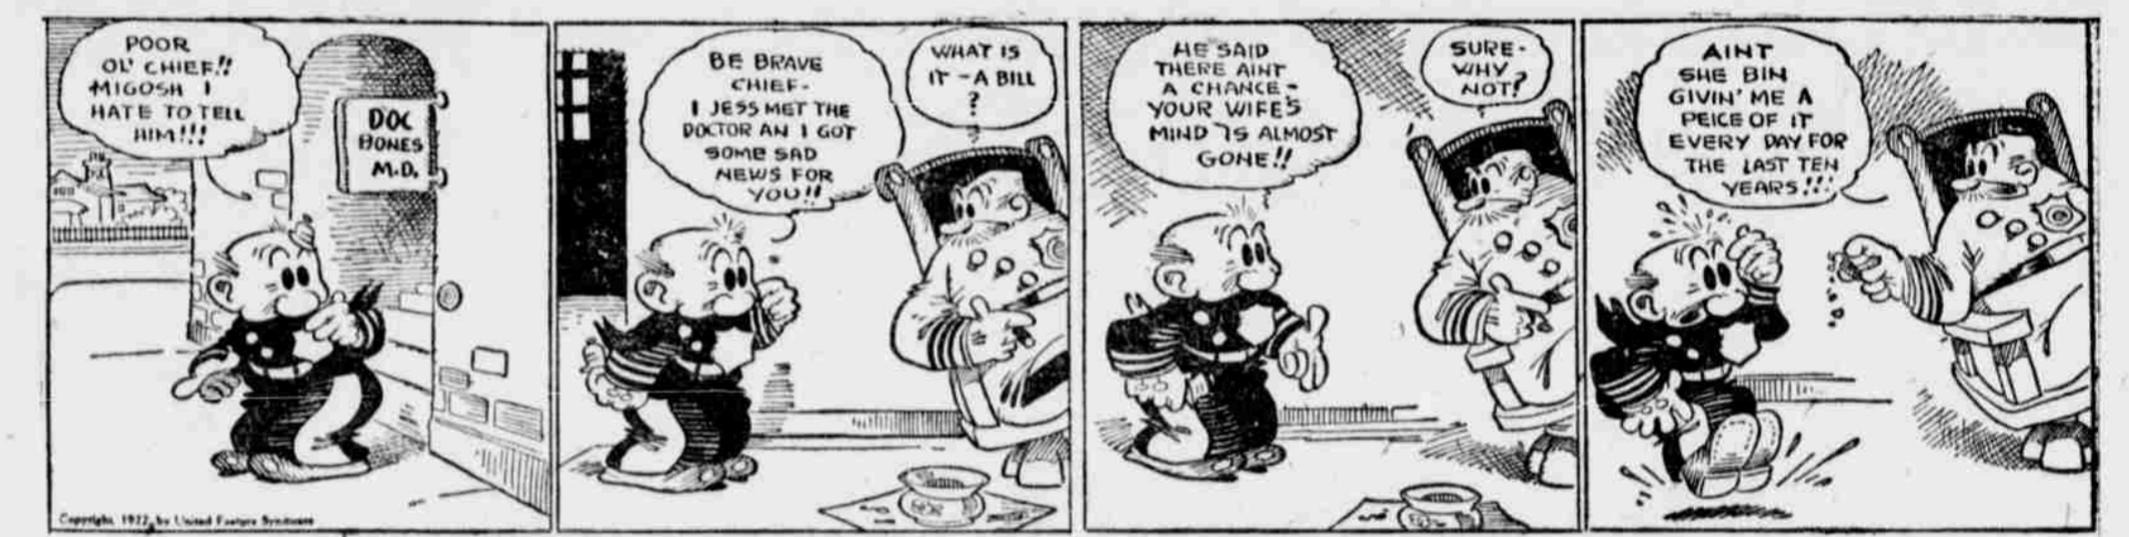

POLLY AND HER PALS—That's When Pa Considered Himself Lucky.

By CLIFF STERRETT

CASEY THE COP—He Needed It!!

By H. M. TALBURTT

BARNEY GOOGLE—Sparky Goes Over on His Own Tip!

By BILLY DE BECK

THEM DAYS IS GONE FOREVER—Try This on Your Wedding Anniversary.

By AL. POSEN

